

STEM CAREER PLANNING SHEET

It's never too early to start planning for a career in science, technology, engineering, or mathematics. One of the best ways to begin this process is to complete a Career Planning Worksheet. Fill out the sections below and share your answers with your teacher or school opportunity counselor.

Your Name:

Career/Discipline:

Volunteer/Internship opportunities I could consider to learn more:

Possible mentors:

Hobbies that compliment this career:

Technical programs, community colleges, or universities I should consider:

A person I could interview about this career:

An interesting company (name/website) I could visit to learn about this career:

Support I need from my school counselor:

Clubs, academic groups, or local initiatives I could join:

Learning/exploration project I could conduct to learn more:

Two questions I have about this career:

Ways my family could help me:

